

MCAST

Job Description

The selected candidate shall be responsible, amongst other duties, for:

- Assess the functionality of existing marine equipment, including reconfiguring and recalibration for measurements at sea.
- Set up an observing system for data acquisition at sea, including mooring, powering, deployment and transmission of the data.
- Integrate to the system any additional parts and equipment that might be necessary.